IGFS is an event that welcomes Fashion Graduates from across the world to showcase their talents and represent their nations, on one platform.

It is a France - Sri Lanka partnership, with the collaboration of the Embassy of France in Sri Lanka and Lanka Institute of Fashion Technology (LIFT) and Mod'Art International, Sri Lanka (Mod'Art). Through IGFS we focus on developing cross cultural links, exchanging ideas, sharing talent and technical expertise from various countries, and encouraging young designers to build partnerships and to create international businesses with new concepts, to serve better in the fashion industry in the future.

New designers, breaking boundaries and joining hands internationally with one another, celebrating design, fashion, cultures and visions have opened many new avenues to experience fashion with value in the world.

In a fast-moving world, where fast fashion is impacting many people and its process polluting the environment rapidly, we trust opportunities like IGFS could bring value to the fashion and apparel industry and the consumers of fashion.

The 1st IGFS was held on 9th of July, 2017 at the Colombo Hilton, during the French Spring Festival in Sri Lanka. Designers graduating from many Universities around the world, demonstrated their first collection as new designers, launching themselves to the fashion industry. Designers from France, United Kingdom, Germany, India, Pakistan and Sri Lanka participated.

On 10th of July, 2018, the event blossomed for the 2nd consecutive time and had Designers from Hungary, France, Germany, Pakistan, India (Bangalore and New Delhi), Bangladesh and Sri Lanka participating. The next event will be happening in July 2020.
